

If we are to help preserve what we still have, we must know what we are preserving. Nature journaling can open a window, even if briefly, onto that expanse where we and it are one with the things around us.

Nature Journaling Workshop

For ages 10-12

Friday, June 27

9:00am-3:00pm

Heritage Village Museum Nature Trail

Ask at Museum Gift Shop for Application,

Call: 409-283-2272 for information or visit www.heritage-village.org

Cost: $20.00 per participant

Each participant will receive a journal, pencils-graphite & colored, water, snack and a lunch

Most of this workshop takes place in the woods so comfortable walking shoes (no flip flops or sandals please!) are a must. Wear loose, comfortable clothing. You can bring a camera but this is not required.